FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MORST MARKET. TUMBAY, Jan. 8-6 P. M.

erable excitement existed at the stock board to-day. The bulls appeared in the ascendency, and had things all their own way. Erie, Nicaragua, Cumberland, Reading, Galena and Chicago—in fact, all the leading stecks on the list—were in active demand, at prices show. ing an advance varying from a quarter to one and a half per cent. The sales of Erie, at the first board, amounted to nearly ten thousand shares, the bulk of which was for cash. The movement in Nicaragua Transit is most extraordinary. About three thousand shares were sold at the Reading was in better demand than we have noticed for some days, but prices were not sustained to the close. No hing definite is yet known regarding the dividend.
It is our opinion that it will not be so large as generally anticipated, but it will be large enough to suit holders of stock for permanent investment. Western railroad stocks were in moderate demand. The heaviest stock on to-day was Hudson River Railroad. It was the only fancy in which there was no im-provement. At the first board Illinois Central ds advanced % per cent; New York Central 6's 1; do. 7's, 1; Canton Company, 1; Nicaragua Transit, 1; Chicago and Ruck Island, 14; Pennsylvania Coal, 14; Coal, %; Erie Railroad, %; Harlem, %; Galeas and Chicego, 1%; Michigan Southern, 1; New Central Railroad, %; Reading, %, but fell back % at the close; Michigan Central Railroad, 1%; Cleveland and Tolede, 1. It appears by this that the advance was univer sal. From this state of things a superficial observer night suppose that an upward movement of some pernence was about being realized. The inflation to-isy has not a proper basis. There is no demand for stocks Wall street, and the probability is that in the event of an expansion in prices of two or three per cent, the supply of stocks in the street would increase instead of diminish. Outsiders are not in a condition just now to take hold of stocks. As the season advances and mer-cantile business commences, we look for outsiders realizing on those they now hold, instead of enlarging their supply. About May or June we should not be surprised to see a very important improvement in prices, and a very active movement in all sorts of stocks; but in the time, any one engaged in business outside of Wall street will want all the money they can control in their legitimate pursuits.

were not sustained, and the sales were to some extent at lower prices. New York Central 6's declined 1/2 per cent; Nicaragua Transit, %; Cumberland, %; Erie, %; lem, & Cleveland and Toledo, & Chicago and Rock Island 1. A small lot of Milwaukie and Mississippi Railroad stock was sold at 86 per cent, and after the board a lot was sold at 87 per cent, cash. An official announcement five per cent cash, and five per cent in stock, the latter ing the accumulations of the sinking fund invested in the company's own bonds. After the board 24% was Nicaragua, and 24% asked. New York Central Railroad, 92% offered. Galena, 125% offered, % seked. Cumberland, 23% offered, % asked. It appears that there has been a moderate in the different departments, and that they have all increase ed in about the same proportion.

The steamship Canada, at Halifax from Liverpool erings us three days' later intelligence. Her dates are to the 22d of December, inclusive. The news is not at all important, and hardly of any interest. Quotations for consols were a fraction lower, and a little more stringency was reported in the London money market. Cutton and breadstuffs were very inactive. No actual decline is reported in cotton, out the tendency was downward. A alight decline is reported in breadstuffs.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Should you think the following analysis of the statement given in your columns of this morning, may assist your correspondent, "A Stockholder." or others interested, to a clearer understanding of the position of the Michigan Central Railroad Company, it is at your service. It would appear from their statement that the company have the following ASSETTS.

Road at cost. $2,000,000 to Due the company from R. N. Rios, for assets in his hands as Superintendent. 129,268 59
Due the company from C. T. Howe, Local Treasurer. 93,250 73

25,400 51 Treasurer.

Due from C. B. Swain, steamboat agent...

Due from New Aibany and Salem R. R. Co...

Ilkinois Central Railroad bonds...

Cash in hand...

Excess of liabilities. $2.264,893 51

The above is the literal reading of the statement of the company; but I do not for a moment believe that they intend to say they have already sunk all their capital, and still want $2.264,893 51 to pay off their liabilities. They do, however, say so, and tell us how it happens. But before proceeding with their account of profit and loss, I must premise that there is an evident error in your printed statement—I should think an omission of your printer of an item in the assets, of $270,911 18, most likely. This is some expense account. The profit and loss, therefore, stand thus:

Expenditure since purchase. $8,668,155 00 ltem omitted as above. 270,911 18

Total 8,929,066 18
Deduct income 641,728 67

Nett loss $8,297,337 51

Capital was. $6,032,444 00

Deficiency of assets before shown. $2,264,893 51

But although the statement literally tells this disastrous story, I have no doubt that the large item of over $8,500,000, set down as expenditure, is in reality mainly an investment in the road—that it is merely the odious, absorbing "construction account," under another but aworse name. If this said $8,500,000 has been so ememployed that the road is worth so much more than before, or in other words, if the company can show $8,500,000 worth for that amount invested, then they have a balance as follows. $3641,728 67

Deduct. $370,817 49

CITY COMMERCIAL REPORT.

damaged) was reported sold at $2 05, but we could not trace it.

Coal.—Eales of 150 tons Liverpool orrel were made at $7 cash, per chaldron

Corn.—The market was dull and tended to easier rates. The sales embraced about 20,000 bushels, including old Western mixed at 90c. a 91c. a 92c., the first price for a lot reported to be somewhat out of order, and the latter figures for lots from store and delivered; 93c. was an outside price, and could not be realized. He imported, himself, early in thesesoon, as amount and variety wholly unsurpassed before I New York. His seles have been astonishingly heavy, beense as sold goods that could not be paralleled for beauty anquisity, and because he sold at a small profit. He has still however, a great stock on hand, and as constant novelty his leading principle in business he prefers to sell at leasthancost, in order to close the entire concern, and open with new goods, rather than keep them on hand till the pecomestal. He soow actually selling ladies' dress trimmings, containecount, for one shilling per, yard, that cost in Europe three wares, or mearly sixty cents, to purchase. Bis embellighment for evening dresses, his hair ornaments, his ribbons, &c., re being all sold on the same capital terms for the public. Litenstein all sold on the same capital terms for the public. Litenstein is the orly dealer who will work for nothing, ratherian keep and of stock on hand. Now is the time, then, topargalas. Never were such goods sold at sour prices before.
